END OF SARATOGA SEASON.

DANDELION SAVES TALENT BY VICTORY IN THE CHAMPLAIN HANDICAP.

Columbia Girl Provides "Getaway Money" for the Western Contingent—The Claimant Breaks Down and Is Destroyed—Aeronaut Amiss.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 30.—The greatest meeting in the history of the Saratoga Racing Association was brought to a brilliant close this afternoon. A big influx of visitors from the surrounding towns helped to swell today's attendance to beyond the 15,000 mark. Dandelion won the stake fixture, the Champlain Handicap of $3,000 at one mile and a furlong, for President Francis R. Hitchcock, in a superlatively game effort from Entree, ridden by Miller. The Hamburg four-year-old, which has been in steady training since early spring, carried 126 pounds to victory in one of the most thrilling finishes ever seen and with the result in doubt up to the last stride. The race was exciting in the extreme. The existence of many a bankroll depended upon the issue, an uncommon number of heavy wagers having been made on the favorite. He came to the rescue of the talent after a series of disasters, beginning with the success of Solly M., an outsider, in the first, followed by the unexpected victory of Allegiance at good odds in the steeplechase over the short course and the win of the disappointing Givonni Balerio in the third, all of which were ignored by the speculatively inclined public.

The western contingent got all the money with Columbia Girl, which won in superior style in the fourth at a mile in a big field. Another colossal plunge took place on Paumonok in the closing race for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs. The Bennington colt at odds-on, never gave his backers a moment's uneasiness, running away from his opponents after he got in his stride.

Flash Hawk has not succeeded in breaking out of the maiden ranks as yet, but it is not unlikely that his persistence will be rewarded at Sheepshead Bay. His start in the last race today was his eleventh. He has been five times second and twice third. In his previous two starts he had finished second and it was this fact that influenced many to back him for the place and to show today. They argued that it was like finding money and it was.

The Claimant broke down in the steeplechase so badly that he was put out of his misery by a friendly bullet.

The great sprinter Aeronaut has gone wrong and may never race again.

Though tomorrow will be an off day for the racing horde, the Coney Island Jockey Club's meeting not opening until Saturday, few were inclined to wait over for a daylight journey to New York. The trains leaving tonight for the metropolis were crowded to the guards.

The majority of the horses participating in the racing here have been shipped to the New York tracks, but there remain many which will not be able to get away until next week because of the scarcity of cars.

Big Crowd Sees Futurity Candidates Work.

New York, August 30.—Hundreds of people journeyed to the Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend courses this morning to see the horses at work. The Futurity candidates, of course, attracted most attention. Nearly all of the probable starters were out, but no phenomenal moves were made. Horace E. was sent five furlongs in 1:05½. He did it easily. Kentucky Beau galloped six furlongs in 1:13½, handily. Pope Joan covered the same distance in 1:16, easing up. Ballot was sent along at a faster clip. He did his six furlongs in 1:14. It was regarded as a good move.

The Sheepshead Bay course was in excellent condition this morning. Gangs of laborers have been at work all week getting the track in the best possible condition for Saturday and unless rain should set in in the meantime the going on Saturday should be faster than ever before in the history of the track.

According to reports from the different stables, the Futurity candidates most likely to start in Saturday's big race, together with their weights and probable riders, are:

James R. Keene's Ballot, 126, Lyne.
James R. Keene's Peter Pan, 127, Koerner.

Paul J. Rainey's De Mund, 123, Martin.
Ormondale Stable's Oran, 130, W. Miller.
Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.'s Conville, 117, Sewell.

J. E. Seagram's Purslane, 117, L. Smith.
Matthew Allen, Jr.'s Surveillance, 114, H. Cochran.

SARTOR RESARTUS WINS STEEPLECHASE.

The Usual Mishaps—Only Two Favorites Win at Windsor—Jockey Flannery Is Suspended.

Detroit, Mich., August 30.—A steeplechase over the short course furnished the attraction at Windsor today. Seven were carded to go and Sam Parmer declined the issue. Sartor Resartus took the lead early and, fencing perfectly and showing his usual speed on the flat, he held the others safe all the way, winning the race practically pulled up. Little Wally, an unusually slow beginner, made up ground gradually and, taking advantage of Trenet the Mere's stumble as they were swinging into the stretch, saved second place handily. Madoc unseated his rider while going the second time around, the boy alighting without mishap, while The Guardsman, an uncertain fencer at best, ran out of the course in front of the grandstand.

The followers of the favorites managed to pick two winners out of the six races. Laura A. was one of the warmest tips of the meeting. The 4 to 5 laid at the opening was early accepted by the speculative public. "Pa" Bradley's Eminola, however, upset calculations and won with two lengths to spare from the good thing.

Jockey Flannery will do no more riding for some time, starter Dwyer having suspended him for the remainder of the meeting for disobedience at the post.

M'KITTBEDGE TO BECOME A JUMPER.

Ben Ban and McKittredge, the disappointing half-brother to McChesney, have been sold by Herman Duryea to F. Ambrose Clark. It is Mr. Clark's intention to have both horses schooled for steeplechasing. McKittredge has been a great disappointment on the flat. As a yearling he was purchased at a big price and as a two-year-old raced in many important stakes without success. This season as a three-year-old it has been the same story, his graduation from the maiden class being his only win, and that was something of a fluke, for it was by the disqualification of Disobedient in the Mohawk Selling Stakes that the brackets went around his name. He is a well bred horse, built on lines that should prove an advantage in the new line to which his efforts are to be confined.

WILLIAM BOLTON DIES AT SARATOGA.

William C. Bolton, a stepbrother of William Cowan and an employee of the firm of which the last named manages the business, died at Saratoga Tuesday, from a sudden attack of liver trouble. He was a member of the Turf Benevolent Association. It was the second death in twenty-four hours among the members of that organization.

DEAD HORSE'S RECORD AS VINDICATION.

Seattle Paper Points to The Huguenot's Races as a Clearance for John McCafferty.

"When The Huguenot passed out to the beyond last week at the Meadows, what many are pleased to call a gentleman was lost to the turf," says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer of Sunday last. "The Huguenot was an aristocrat from the tip of his slim ears to the last hair on his heel. To the very final moment he comported himself as to the manor born, and it is a matter to be more than regretted that the accident culminating in his death cut short a career that has no equal in the history of the northwestern turf.

"From the day that he was foaled turf lore attaches to the name of The Huguenot. He was a full brother of Henry of Navarre, the best three-year-old of his day. As a three-year-old he won, among other races, the Brooklyn Derby, afterward going lame, and was turned out until 1901, when he celebrated his return to the turf by winning a fast race at Washington.

"Up to the present year The Huguenot changed hands many times, finally becoming the property of J. J. McCafferty. It was at Los Angeles, and the famous Durnell-McCafferty fight was at its climax. McCafferty started the horse in a selling race, and Durnell claimed him, immediately putting him in charge of several veterinarians, alleging that he had been doped. It was on this evidence, an allegation of Durnell, that McCafferty was subsequently ruled off the turf by the California Jockey Club. At the time of the alleged doping, Phil Reilly, who has partially owned and trained The Huguenot at the Meadows, and won ten races with him, made an affidavit that the horse on this particular day of the Durnell charges, was not under the influence of any drug. It might be mentioned that The Huguenot was a horse of peculiarly intense vitality. His eye was always large and protruding, and his nostrils, when looking out of his stall door, were considerably distended.

"Reverting back to Durnell, The Huguenot was put up at auction at Los Angeles before his then owner journeyed east. He was purchased by Mr. Reilly for $850, who subsequently sold a half interest in him to the Schubach Bros. before leaving the south. Mr. Reilly won two races with him, and since coming to Seattle has captured eight, being twice outside the money. He has an unbeaten record on a northwestern track of seven straight wins. In these latter mentioned races the miles were run from 1:38½ to 1:40½. Averaged up they show a consistency of 1:39½. This is a record unequaled by any horse of his age.

"To any horseman who really knows horses and can judge of performances, this record should be more than sufficient to exonerate John J. McCafferty regarding any charge of doping The Huguenot. No one who has witnessed his racing here, and no horse that ever raced over a Seattle track, has raced more consistently and has carried more of the public confidence and money than The Huguenot, could, by the wildest stretch of imagination, claim that he had ever been subjected to the drug treatment in order to accelerate his speed. If this is the only charge that the powers that be have against McCafferty, the record in the turf guide and the evidence of every man who knows races and wants to tell the truth should be sufficient."

HYLAND TALKS ABOUT YANKEE GUN.

New York, August 30.—John Hyland has arrived at Sheepshead Bay with Oscar Lewishohn's Futurity candidate, Yankee Gun. Hyland is not as sanguine as to the chances of Yankee Gun in the Futurity as he was before the running of the United States Hotel Stakes at Saratoga, last Saturday. It is not that he has lost faith in the colt. He still believes the son of Yankee and Royal Gun will make good in the best of company eventually. Yankee Gun is not, in the opinion of Hyland, merely a mud runner. He was not beaten in the United States because he could not run fast on a fast track. Hyland believes he can run anywhere when he is fit. He was beaten in the United States, his trainer believes, because he was raced back too quickly after his gruelling effort in the mud with De Mund. De Mund came back also, but he did not have to stand any such drive on the first occasion as Yankee Gun was subjected to.

De Mund got away with the lead and was not bothered in the five and a half furlongs racing in the mud. Yankee Gun, never a quick breaker, was all but left. He was the last horse from the post save one, and immediately after breaking he met with a rebuff which further handicapped him. He did not get fairly in his stride until De Mund began the turn out of the backstretch fifty or seventy-five yards in front of him. From the half mile post to the finish Jack Martin flogged him without mercy.

Martin's connections were betting on Yankee Gun, and under such circumstances that young man does his best. His best is excellent. It is as good as the best of any jockey in the United States. It was not the fault of Hyland that Yankee Gun ran back in the United States Hotel Stakes. Hyland urged against starting the big colt so soon after his hard race in the mud. But Jesse Lewishohn, the only representative of the owner of the colt at Saratoga, insisted upon Yankee Gun's starting and Hyland had to yield. Hyland is not sure Yankee Gun will have recovered sufficiently from the effects of his gallop in the United States, which was also hard, to show well in the Futurity, but it is likely the colt will start just the same. Jesse Lewishohn wishes to see his brother's colors up once more.

OBERT UNDER SUSPICION.

JUDGES CALL HIM TO ACCOUNT FOR BAD RIDE ON CORUSCATE.

Investigation of the Matter Is Being Made—Six Favorites Are Defeated at Latonia—Horsemen Are Leaving for Louisville.

Cincinnati, O., August 30.—The climax to an unsatisfactory day's racing, especially for backers of the favorite, came in the closing race at Latonia when Obert gave Coruscate what, to the majority and best of close observers, appeared a criminal ride. The judges promptly called Obert into the stand to explain. His explanation was unsatisfactory and the judges have taken the matter under further consideration. It is practically certain that, unless he can show good cause for his bad ride, Obert will be ruled off the turf. Should he attribute it to a natural cause, there is small chance of his escaping a lengthy suspension for incompetency. Coruscate was the heaviest backed favorite of the afternoon and logically so. Under proper handling she would have been returned an easy winner. Obert, however, let her trail the three horses comprising her company and when she showed an inclination to move up he restrained her until the stretch turn was reached, when he deliberately steered her to the inner rail into a pocket where she was kept until her chance of winning was effectively settled. In the last seventy yards he made a feeble play to pull out, and did so, but the race was over by this time, Savoir Faire winning comfortably from Lady Charade with Coruscate a nose in the rear. The backers of Coruscate were chagrined over her defeat and they did not hesitate to express their feelings on departing from the track.

Six choices fell by the wayside this afternoon and the bookmakers reaped a harvest.

The departure of numerous stables for Douglas Park has left a scarcity of good horses here, consequently for the last two days of this meeting the fields will be small, and good quality conspicuous by its absence. With Nicol's departure, many of the big speculators have also taken a rest, and the sixteen books, which includes the fielders, did a light business during the afternoon. Another batch of horsemen shipped their strings to Louisville today, and the exodus will continue as fast as cars can be had to transport the stock. On Saturday the horses of P. Dunne, J. C. Ferriss, Jr., W. R. Hayes and J. C. Cahn will be transported. T. P. Hayes, who arrived today from Saratoga, after a disastrous campaign at the Spa, announced that his horses would be shipped from Saratoga to Douglas Park next Saturday.

Princess Orna if she ships well will probably be a starter in the opening handicap at Douglas Park.

James Perkins has sold Shawana to Hughes Brothers for the reported price of $1,900. Perkins bought the filly recently from Talbot Brothers for $1,600.

Jockey Austin, who had an arm broken by a fall while riding at Saratoga, returned today. He expressed the belief that Horace E. is the best two-year-old in the east and he says the Missouri-bred colt will win the Futurity.

Jockey Treubel became ill after riding Estrada Palma and was excused by the judges from fulfilling further engagements during the afternoon.

For rough riding in the fourth race jockey Obert was fined $25 by the judges.

CHARLES EDWARD WILL NOT START.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 30.—The stable of Sydney Paget and E. R. Thomas will not be represented in the Futurity. This announcement is authorized by trainer Joyner, who says Charles Edward has not done as well as he hoped he might since he ran in the Saratoga Special on a spread foot, and that he has decided to put the colt by for the season. Charles Edward is one of the biggest and finest-looking youngsters in training. He is a son of Golden Garter and Flora Mac, and a full brother to Jacobite, one of the swiftest two-year-old sprinters of last season.

Charles Edward won the National Stallion race under the colors of Mr. Paget at Belmont Park in the early spring. It was the intention of Mr. Paget and Mr. Thomas to race him two or three times in the spring, but he developed a skin disease immediately after the National Stallion triumph and he had to be put away temporarily. It is disappointing that he has not recovered his form. A youngster of the quality he displayed in the National Stallion race would have a royal chance in the Futurity.

A strange fatality has followed the offspring of Golden Garter and Flora Mac these two seasons. Last fall, after Jacobite had come through a stiff and long campaign sound of wind and limb and with flying colors and when it looked as though he might develop into one of the best three-year-old sprinters of this season, Jacobite lamed himself while romping about one of Joyner's paddocks at Sheepshead Bay track. Joyner hoped last spring to get him to the post in winning fettle this fall, but inasmuch as he was not put in the Sheepshead Bay Autumn Stakes, when they closed in July, it may be safely assumed that all is not well with him.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO N. H. AND S. RULES

At the next meeting of the National Hunt and Steeplechase Association action will be taken on the following amendment to the rules:

"No entry of a horse that has started in a steeplechase or hurdle race, in this or in any other country previous to October 1 of the year which he is a three-year-old, can be received for meetings held under these rules during his three-year-old year."

The amendment already has been approved of by the committee on rules, S. S. Howland, H. S. Page and H. J. Morris, and has the approval of practically all those closely identified with cross-country racing. The object is to protect the interests of those racing under the National Hunt and Steeplechase rules. As the clause now stands it merely prohibits the giving of races through the field for three-year-olds before October 1. This does not prevent a three-year-old which had raced in the west from coming on and meeting a field of horses making their initial efforts. The new rule also will serve to check any desire on the part of eastern owners sending their young horses west for an education in races before the time they can be raced in these parts.

A CORRECTION OF ODDS.

In the chart of the second race at Windsor, August 28, the quotations against the winner, Star-glow, were returned and published as having been 2 1-2 to 1 opening, and 3 to 1 closing. Investigation has established that the opening price was 4 to 1.
 The closing price was as published.

Cambridge had no mishaps, forced a fast pace and tired in the stretch run, but had enough left to stall off the rush of George Vivian. The latter finished fast after closing a big gap. Lazell ran in keen contention for a mile, then tired from racing The Gadfly into subjection. The latter quit badly in the stretch run. Chandida was in close quarters most of the way.

Scratched—64444 Bery Waddell, 101; 64425 Fra Filippo, 99.

Time, 2:38.48; 1:02; 1:08.

Winner—Br. f. by Charade—Avalanche (trained by J. R. Taylor).
Went to post at 3:01. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving; third the same.
Avendow had the best of the start and took a long lead at once and won all the way. Grandita had a rough trip and was almost thrown by Orlandwick when going fastest on the stretch turn, then had to go around and, finishing fast, was wearing the winner down at the end. Orlandwick ran a good race, but tired in the stretch. La Thorpe had a rough trip and might have been third with clear sailing. Agra showed sudden improvement and speed and was right there most of the way. Lady Vimont ran a bad race under poor handling and can do much better. Lady Arion would not break with the others and was practically left.

Scratched—64342 Anna Ruskin, 102; 64108 Jay Swift, 107.
Overweights—La Thorpe, 14 pounds; Helmuth, 42.

64455 THIRD RACE—1-8 Mile. (1:51—3—98.) Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

Time, 2:48; 1:15; 1:42; 1:55.

Winner—Br. m. by Halma—Jessie Lee B. (trained by F. Gering, Jr.).
Went to post at 3:31. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Athena, at present in good form, ran forwardly from the start, wore down Estrada Palma after going several furlongs and, standing a hard drive, outstayed Moreno. The latter, probably much the best, suffered from interference while rounding the first turn, was in close quarters while going down the backstretch and finished fast when the bell rang. Bellevue showed improved form and ran a good race. Rubinon was badly handled and was gaining at the end. Estrada Palma showed plenty of early speed, but tired fast after going a mile. Plautus closed a big gap from a poor beginning. Bernie Cramer was poorly handled, but ran a good race.

Scratched—64416 The Laurel, 100; 64401 Pillar, 100; 64421 Harpoon, 100.
Overweights—Sand Bath, 1 pound.
